VOLUME CVIII.--NO. 108. ALEXANDRIA, VA., MONDAY EVENING, MAY 6, 1907. PRICE 2 CENTS.

What Ails You?

Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heartburn," belching of gas, acid risings in throat after eating, stomach gnaw or burn, foul breath, dizzy spells, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, torpid liver with indigestion, or dyspepsia. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. A glance at its formula will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of the following native American forest plants, viz., Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherrybark, Queen's root, Bloodroot, and Mandrake root.

The following leading medical authorities, among a host of others, extol the forest roots for the cure of just such ailments as the above symptoms indicate: Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Med. College, Phila.; Prof. S. O. Wood, M. D., of Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., Author of American Dispensatory; Prof. Jno. M. Scudder, M. D., Author of Specific Medicines; Prof. Laurence Johnson, M. D., Med. Dept. Univ. of N. Y.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., Author of Materia Medica and Prof. in Bennett Medical College, Chicago. Send name and address on Postal Card to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive free booklet giving extracts from writings of all the above medical authors and many others endorsing, in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient of which "Golden Medical Discovery" is composed.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. They may be used in conjunction with "Golden Medical Discovery" if bowels are much constipated. They're tiny and sugar-coated.

APPEARING OLD

acts as a Bar to Profitable Employment.

You cannot afford to grow old.

In these days of strenuous competition it is necessary to maintain, as long as possible ones youthful appearance.

It is impossible to do this without retaining a luxurious growth of hair.

The presence of Dandruff indicates the presence of a burrowing germ which lives and thrives on the roots of the hair until it causes total baldness.

Newbro's Herpicide is the only known destroyer of this pest, and it is as effective as it is delightful to use

Herpicide makes an elegant hair dressing as well as Dandruff cure.

Accept no substitute—there is none.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend

Alleged Plan to Restore Temporal Power

A dispatch from New York says that there is far more than appears on the surface, back of the shore cable message received from Rome last Thursday, in which it was set forth that Richard C. Kerens, of St Louis, and Martin Maloney, the Philadelphia millionaire, were preparing to buy a narrow strip of land extending from the Vatican to the coast to give the Pope a villa on the seashore.

Back of that statement some see a plan to restore the temporal power of the Pope in a way with which the Quirinal may acquiesce, solve the entire Vatican problem and give to the head of the Roman Church again a seat among the ruling monarchs of the world, with a little kingdom of his own. As the idea necessarily provides for full recognition on the part of the Italian government, it contemplates for the Papal Court ambassadors and ministers recognition from every important country. Incidentally there is interwoven a plan for the enhancement of the Catholic Church in the United States and the creation of at least three new American Cardinals.

Credit has been given to Kerens for the idea, but it is said the suggestion came from Archbishop Glennon, of St. Louis, said by an English Vatican diplomat to be in the Pope's mind as the next wearer of the red hat in this country. Anyway, Kerens and Maloney are the leading spirits, and only American money will be used to finance the project. The plan has been forming for several years, and the first $10,000,000 needed has been pledged. Two or three times as much will be required in the end.

The Vatican gardens are in the trans-Tiber district of Rome, and at the rear are about 1,200 feet broad. It is purposed to buy a strip in the comparatively congested district of exactly that width, but to broaden it, as soon as the open country is reached, to a width varying from a quarter to three-fifths of a mile. The strip is to be extended to Civita Vecchia. Its length will be 65 miles.

It is believed it will not be difficult to win from the Italian government recognition of the Pope's temporal power in the limited domain to be bought, as that would not affect the king's rule over Rome and would make foreign territory of a mere ribbon of Italian soil.

Parade Denounced by Priest.

Rev. Father Henry A. Brann, rector of St. Agnes' Catholic Church in New York, stood near the Grand Central Palace on Saturday night when the parade of socialists and union labor men flung itself against the hall, cheering the red flag, shouting the Marseillaise, and howling that Moyer, Haywood, and Pettibone must not be convicted.

Later, when the crowd broke up and roared through the side streets, Father Brann, in front of the rectory, heard more cheers for the red flag, denunciations of President Roosevelt, and yells of "our martyrs," Moyer, Haywood, and Pettibone. Yesterday morning, at high mass in St. Agnes' Church, Father Brann delivered a sermon on "The necessity of religious education," preaching before a congregation composed in part of union labor men, who are his parishioners. These he compared with the men he had seen the night before in the parade carrying red flags and singing what Father Brann called "the song of blood, murder, rapine, and anarchy." Such men and such demonstrations, he told his congregation, are un-American, disloyal, hostile to the country which protects them. Exhibitions of that kind, said Father Brann, produce assassins of the character of the men who murdered McKinley, and might breed one to murder President Roosevelt.

Mysterious Murder.

A brutal murder was brought to light in Philadelphia yesterday with the finding of the body of John Lovett floating in the Schuylkill river near the center of Philadelphia. A rope was knotted tightly around the dead man's neck, and when the body was examined by the police 34 stab wounds were found in an area of 10 inches covering the heart. The man's neck had been fractured, one arm was broken and his lower jaw and chin had been cleft open. Lovett was 42 years old and lived not far from where the body was found floating in the river. He had been missing from his home for about three weeks. The police thought at first from the nature of the wounds found on the body that the man was a "Black Hand" victim, but when identification was made by a tattoo mark in the form of a butterfly on the crown of his head they abandoned their first theory, and now declare that Lovett had been killed by two men and thrown into the water. The body, they say, had been weighted to hold it under the water, as indicated by the rope found tied around the neck.

He Fought at Gettesburg.

Davis Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes: "Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took. For several years I had stomach trouble, and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose, until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $50 for what they have done for me." Grand tonic for the aged and for female weaknesses. Great alterative and body builder; sure cure for lame back and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, 50c.

ARBUCKLES' ARIOSA COFFEE
GAVE THEM AMBITION AND THE POWER THAT TURNED THE WILDERNESS INTO THE GREATEST RICHEST COUNTRY THE SUN SHINES UPON
SOLD IN SEALED PACKAGES ONLY FOR YOUR PROTECTION

"For over thirty years," writes a gentleman in Los Angeles, "I have used Arbuckles' Coffee. Many times my family has tried other coffee only to come back to our old reliable, unchangeable Arbuckles. No other coffee has this uniform never failing aroma, I care not at what price. I have often wished I could tell you this." Many other people have the same opinion. Arbuckles' was the first roasted packaged coffee, and its sales exceed all the others put together. That it costs you less is due simply to our coffee business being so much greater than any competitors, in fact, it is larger than the next four largest firms in the world combined. We naturally can and actually do give better coffee in ARIOSA than anyone else can give for the price; Being the standard article it is sold at the narrowest margin of profit.

Some grocers will try to sell you instead loose coffee which the roaster is ashamed to sell in a package bearing his name.

Don't take it, neither the looks nor the price indicate its cup quality. No matter where you buy Arbuckles' ARIOSA, or what you pay for it, it's the same old uniform Arbuckles' ARIOSA Coffee.

If your grocer will not supply, write to ARBUCKLE BROS., New York City.

Warrant for Arrest of Dickson Illegal.

Counsel for Robert S. Dickson, charged with the abduction of Madeline Dempsey from the home of her sister, in Washington, who appealed from the decision of Mayor Wallace, of Fredericksburg was granted a hearing in the Corporation Court before Judge Goolrick Saturday as to whether the warrant on which Dickson was arrested was legal or not. The judge decided that the warrant was worthless and the accused could not be held on it. This decision releases Dickson's bondman, who went bail in the sum of $1,000. It is not thought that another warrant will be issued by the prosecuting attorney of Fredericksburg for Dickson's arrest as a warrant of similar nature has been issued by the Washington authorities who are now endeavoring to find the accused. Mr. William Dickson, father of Robert S. Dickson, reached here this morning in response to a telegram from his son's counsel.

Let me mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Address me, Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the near to of your ailment. Weak stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, Always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write for my free Book now. Dr. Shoop's Restorative sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, MAY 6, 1907.

A GRAND tour of the Mississippi from Minneapolis to New Orleans, escorted by the Governors of all the Valley States, will probably be taken by President Roosevelt in October in connection with the work of the Waterways Commission, which the President appointed shortly after the adjournment of Congress, and which organized a few days ago. The Governors of 18 States whose people are interested in the project for giving the Mississippi an 18 foot channel from Minnesota to the Gulf have united in a request to the President to make the voyage down the big stream so that he can see for himself the importance of carrying out the great project. If he makes the inspection of the big river it is promised that the affair will be made one of the most spectacular and memorable ever pulled off in the Mississippi Valley. There will be receptions and speech-making at all the important towns and various kinds of blowouts in honor of the President and with a view of giving the big improvement scheme a boost that will familiarize the whole country with its scope and object. Incidentally it may be expected that the President will not neglect the opportunity to infect the Mississippi Valley still more deeply with the Roosevelt virus.

As a result of the visit to Washington Saturday of Governor Deneen, of Illinois, it is said a thorough working understanding on politics between the federal administration and the Governor has been reached. Governor Deneen spent a good deal of time with Secretary of War Taft, and later had a long consultation with the President, at which the Secretary of War was present for awhile. It is said that no attempt was made formally to commit the Governor to the Taft Presidential candidacy, as this was not thought expedient or necessary. But the administration made it plain to the Governor that he could have its help if he needed it, as a consequence of hostile action on the part of what is known as the "federal crowd" in Illinois threatening to block the Governor's renomination next year. The present is probably the greatest scheming administration that ever had control of the government.

THE New York State Railroad Commission finds that there were 3,014 breakages in rails on the principal steam lines of the State during the first quarter, as compared with 826 during the same period of last year. This matter has been called to the attention of the American Railway Association, in convention at Chicago, with the request that it be placed before the rail manufacturers to discover whether the increase in breakages is due to new methods of manufacture or to deterioration in the metal composition. Surely the steel corporation should furnish sound rails in return for the enormous tariff-protected price it receives for them.

A WOMAN in St. Louis who sued her husband for divorce Saturday said that the man sometimes chewed tobacco in bed, soiling the pillow slips. As further cause for complaint, she insists that her husband often slept with his trousers on. This was a pretty tough combination and the court should loose little time in entering a divorce decree.

THE REPORT of the United States Steel Company for the first quarter of the year showed earnings of over $39,000,000, a gain of $2,500,000 over the same quarter of last year. Great is protection and the steel trust is its chief beneficiary.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, May 6.

"With ten or fifteen days of good weather, working days, everything will be in apple pie order at the exposition," said Harry St. George Tucker, president of the Jamestown Exposition Co., at the White House today. He said his visit to Washington was in connection with the floating of $400,000 worth of exposition bonds, which he said, would be disposed of easily. Mr. Tucker is in Washington to make arrangements for Secretary Metcalf of the Navy to attend Landing Day on May 13.

The latest proposed entry into a contest with Homer Davenport's Arabian horse in the endurance trip across the continent, with a representative of the army in the saddle, is an Ohio mule. Its owner lives in Toledo, and he has written to the war department that he has a mule that is a "cracker-jack" and that it would leave the Arabian horse winded, long before he got half way from the Pacific coast to Washington, Col. Castleman, owner of Kentucky thoroughbreds, has also issued a challenge. The war department has not yet signified any intention of allowing other contestants to try conclusions with the artists Arabian steed.

Socialistic Element Routed.

The radical socialist delegates to the Central Federated Union were routed in New York yesterday in an attempt to get that body on record as attacking the President, when the report of the committee of three which went to see President Roosevelt last week regarding his "undesirable citizens" statement in reference to Moyer and Haywood was read.

Applause followed the report, which was adopted.

A letter from the President to a member of the committee which waited upon him was also read. Mr. Roosevelt deals with the Moyer-Haywood matter in a calm and conservative manner, and shows his desire that these men be given a fair and impartial trial. He condemns what he regards as "murderous and treasonable" certain language attributed to Debs and others of the radical stripe of labor leaders.

Mr. Ryan and the Exposition.

New York, May 6.—Wall street today generally credited the report that Thomas F. Ryan has come to the rescue of the Jamestown Exposition with a loan of $400,000. Mr. Ryan has protected himself, however, according to the circulated story, by securing a mortgage on the exposition grounds and buildings, which virtually makes him owner of the exposition. Mr. Ryan, it is now said, is the New York financier visited by President Harry St. G. Tucker and Brooks Johnson, of the exposition help. The government originally demanded a mortgage on the exposition grounds to cover the $1,000,000 national loan asked by the exposition. It was finally satisfied, however, with being given a lien on the gate receipts. The grounds and buildings were then said to be held as security for preferred stockholders. Ryan's claim, it is now said, will override their interests. That money to place the exposition on its feet has been promised was announced yesterday at a meeting of directors at Norfolk, according to reports received here. Mr. Ryan's name was not mentioned, but he is said to be the "angel" of the exposition. Wall street does not regard a speculation in exposition securities are showing commendable business sagacity as a general rule and it is hinted that behind Ryan's generosity is a little political motive. Mr. Ryan has been credited for some time with an ambition to succeed Senator John W. Daniel, of Virginia, in the upper House of Congress. Some financiers regard his loan in the light of a bid for prominent poplarity with Virginians.

Contest Between Capitol and Labor.

San Francisco, May 6.—Capital and organized labor are in a fight to the finish in San Francisco. Following the declaration of a strike by the street railway employes yesterday proprietors of large retail stores are threatening to close their places, and today a general tie-up of business seems inevitable. As the latest walk-out follows upon the heels of many others, thousands of strikers are idle in the city. Disorders are expected momentarily and troops will be called upon for protection. Conditions in the city today resemble those immediately following the earthquake and fire of last year. Deep gloom has settled upon those hoping for an early realization of a "new San Francisco."

Convicted of Conspiracy.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 6.—Eleven alleged members of the Black Hand gang were convicted of the charge of conspiracy, the jury rendering a verdict today. The two men acquitted are Salvatore Volpi and Andrew Paternoster. Volpi was released but Paternoster was held on two other charges. The other defendants were all remanded to jail until Saturday pending a motion for a new trial to be made by their counsel. They were convicted of conspiracy to extort money from the Rizzi brothers, of Pittson. Charges of dynamiting, shooting and threats are also pending against the convicted men.

The attending physicians fear she cannot recover. Mrs. Cottingham occupied a room with her daughter. The gas was flowing from the jet in the room and from the appearances, it is evident that the couple on retiring, while in the act of turning out the light, accidentally turned the on jet.

LETTER TO J G COCKEY.

Alexandria, Virginia.

Dear Sir: The easiest way we know of to make a little money is—if you're going to paint—to paint with the paint that takes least gallons.

Take a small job; say it takes 10 gallons Devoe, two coats; that's an average house. When the job is done and the bill comes in, it is $50; the etc $17.50; the rest is for labor and garnage; the labor is fixing the surface, shifting ladders scaffolds pulleys and ropes, and brushing-on paint.

Take another job exactly like that; try another paint; it takes 12 gallons. The bill is $10 more. Take another exactly the same; another paint; it takes 20 gallons. The bill is $100.

There is only one Devoe; there's a dozen 12-gallon paints, and 100 that take 20 gallons to cover a 10-gallon job.

The only difficulty is in finding out Devoe. After that you save work; there's less work in 10 than in 12 or 20 gallons; less paint to buy and less to brush-on and less wages to pay.

If Devoe were only a little better than others, there'd be some difficulty in finding out the difference. It goes twice as far as half the paints; that ought to be easy.

It wears longer too. You'll wait a good while, if you wait to find out how long it wears; there are thousands of people who know that the least-gallons paint wears longest.

Yours truly,

F W DEVOE & Co.

LITTLE HORACE MARVIN'S BODY.

Within half a mile of the home of his distracted father, who for two months had directed a search that romified the whole continent, the body of Horace Marvin, jr., the 4-year-old boy who disappeared from his home at Kitts Hammock near Dover, Del., on March 4, was found Saturday afternoon, and in a condition that indicates that the child has been dead for several weeks. Thus the mystery as to the whereabouts of the lost boy is solved; but the mystery as to how he met his fate may remain unsolved.

There is a growing belief that the child wandered into the marsh and died of exposure, but Dr. Marvin, the father declares his little son was murdered. He does not believe that the boy has been dead since March 4. Despite the condition of the little corpse, the theory to which he adheres is that his boy was stolen away by kidnappers, that the hue and cry and the fear of the death penalty that prevails in the State frightened them until they dared not make demand for ransom; and that finally, when they found they must be rid of the boy, they slew him and placed the little body where its presence must soon become known to the family.

The body of the child was discovered by Ollie Pleasanton, a gunner and trapper, who was shooting ducks. He was walking past the marsh when he saw a dark object in a small pool of water that had been left by Friday night's rain. He lifted the object from the water, found that it was the body of a child, and knew that it must be the lost Horace Marvin. Pleasanton has figured in the case since Horace was lost, having first reported that he had seen the two strange men who appeared there inquiring about the topography of the country three days before the disappearance.

The spot where the body was found, it is claimed, had been burned over by fire four weeks ago. The clothing, however, showed no sign of having been burned.

The child's clothing was intact, and just as it was on the day of his disappearance. Even the mittens were still on his hands. His knitted woolen cap was pulled down over his face, the tassel, however, being almost torn off. The child's face was much discolored.

The medical men selected to make the autopsy yesterday found that the boy had not been drowned; that he had been dead from four weeks to two months; that his body was in a remarkable state of preservation; that his death was not due to violence other than poison or suffocation; that his stomach was entirely empty, and that starvation might have been the cause.

The autopsy was adjourned to allow Dr. Alfred Robyn, the bacteriologist who accompanied Attorney General Richards to the scene, to take the stomach and make an exhaustive chemical analysis.

A prevailing theory is that the boy met accidental death, and after being hidden in a box or sack was taken back on the farm and thrown into the little partly hidden pool.

Diamio, the Pinkerton representative in Dover, expressed the belief that the little fellow wandered across the farm and fell through an air hole in the ice.

The body of little Horace N. Marvin, jr., was laid in the grave on the of Bay Meadows near Dover, Del., at sunset yesterday evening. This site near the farmhouse was selected because his father wants to spend the remaining days of his life near him.

Woman In Army Row.

For the first time, according to the memory of the oldest army officers, says the New York Herald, a woman has been made the subject of a formal investigation by the War Department. She is Mrs. Elizabeth Fairfax Ayres, wife of Lieut. Col. Charles G. Ayres, of the Eighth Cavalry. The inquiry has been ordered by Secretary Taft, at the suggestion of President Roosevelt, and is being conducted by Col. Stephen C. Mills, of the Inspector General's Department, who arrived in New York for the purpose yesterday. The now historic "cadet overcoat" incident at West Point on Easter Sunday is at the bottom of the affair.

While no formal charges have been framed against Mrs. Ayres, the investigation will have to do with criticisms made by her upon Col. Robert Lee Howze, commandant of cadets at West Point, as a result of that incident. There is a technicality in the case which may have an important bearing upon its decision.

It appears that on Easter Sunday a number of young ladies appeared on the parade ground wearing cadets' overcoats. Col. Howze ordered one of the sergeants to request the ladies to doff the coats forthwith. The order was obeyed, but not without resentment from the cadets as well as from the young women, one of the loudest in protest being a daughter of Mrs. Ayres. The latter subsequently wrote letters to the President and others criticizing Col. Howze, hence the investigation. Mrs. Ayres is the daughter of Col. J. W. Fairfax of Prince William county.

Boy Captured an Eagle.

The capture of a baldheaded eagle, measuring 9 feet 2 inches from tip to tip, is what the nine-year-old son of Cassidy Linthicum, of the vicinity of Clarksburg, Montgomery county, Md., accomplished on his father's farm a few days ago. The bird had been hovering about the place for several days and Mr. Linthicum shot at it a number of times with a rifle, one ball, it is thought, injuring its wing. The boy spied the eagle in a tree near the Linthicum home and he began to bombard it with stones. He struck the bird on the head and knock it to the ground and then beat it to death with a club.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

Gave up Interstate Trade.

Chicago, May 6.—Forty-six establishments have been compelled to give up their interstate trade in meat, as a result of the enforcement of the meat inspection law in the last ten months, according to a statement made by Dr. A. D. Melvin, chief of the Bureau of Animal Industry, Department of Agriculture, in a speech before a meeting of meat inspectors in this city today. Inspection was withdrawn from twelve of these because of the failure to maintain a proper standard of sanitation, and without the inspection the meats could not be carried by the railroads from one state to another. Others were closed for using prohibited preservatives. Most of the establishments closed preferred to forfeit their interstate trade, still keeping the intarstate business, rather than bear the loss from the condemnation of animals and meats. Dr. Melvin said this experience showed the necessity for state and municipal vigilance in regard to inspection.

"Silent" Smith's Will.

New York, May 6.—In the $1,500,000 mansion in Fifth avenue, which he did not live to occupy as a benedict, after spending a small fortune to furnish it for his bride, the body of James Henry (Silent) Smith, the millionaire who died in Japan while on his honeymoon, lay in state today. Many intimate friends of the dead millionaire and his widow called to pay tribute to the dead man. The funeral will be held tomorrow and will be private. Following the interment Smith's will is to be read. It was authoritatively stated today that, despite all stories to the contary, only one will exists. It is said it gives the major portion of the estate, probably about $20,000 to George Mason, Smith's favorite nephew. Mrs. Smith receives about three and Lady Cooper two million. The Chicago Hospital will get $50,000 and $600,000 will be divided among other charitable institutions.

Riots in India.

Lahore, India, May 6.—The native unrest has reached a point where it menaces the English rule throughout India. It is rapidly assuming an anti-Christian aspect. Anglo-Indians are very apprehensive, and the situation is declared to be the most serious since the "mutiny."

Riotous outbreaks have occurred at Amritsar and Pindi. A band of Hindu students started the riots which were entirely of anti-Christian character. At Pindi the mob desecrated churches and attacked among others an American mission church. A hall was burned and native Christians were maltreated and beaten. Severe repressive measures are being resorted to by the authorities to repress the rioters, and it is feared this will only incite the agitators to fresh deeds of violence.

Believe Child Died from Exposure.

Dover, Del., May 6.—Following the first flush of excitement and with saner judgment prevailing, the conviction is becoming general here to-day that instead of being a victim of foul play or an accident, little Horace E. Marvin, jr., whose dead body was found in a pool on his father's farm Saturday afternoon, died of exposure after having wandered away from his playmates on the afternoon of his disappearance, Monday, March 4. Many, however, still adhere to the belief that the lad was a victim of foul play and final judgment is being reserved until the coroner's jury makes its report late this week at the conclusion of the examination by Dr. Albert Robin, the Wilmington bacterioligist, of the stomach of the little victim.

Labor Demonstration in Boston.

Boston, May 6.—The greatest labor demonstration Boston has ever seen took place yesterday afternoon when between 50,000 and 70,000 people gathered on the common to hear speakers denounce Roosevelt for his attitude toward the Moyer-Haywood trail. The mass meeting was preceded by a parade in which marched 15,000 men, women, and children. On the common the crush was so grert that over 30 women and four men fainted, their unconscious forms were stretched in front of the speakers' stand.

The Carew-Terry Marriage.

Pittsburg, May 6.—Fear of the story of the affair might be construed as a press agent yarn was responsible for the secrecy which attended the wedding of Miss Ellen Terry, the celebrated English actress, and James Carew, her leading man, which was solemenized in this city March 22, but which was only made public yesterday, when the bridegroom made the announcement. Notwithstanding the fact that Miss Terry's age is 59 and that of her husband 35, the match is said to be one of love alone.

Elopers Still at Large.

New York, May 6.—All trace of Rev. Jere Knode Cooke and 17-year-old Floretta Whaley, with whom he eloped, have been lost since they were reported to have been seen heading for the Cortland ferry on Friday after leaving an elevated train, but the authorities are still hot after the missing minister.

Prisoners Liberated.

St. Petersburg, May 6.—Through a bold attack on the prison at Alexandrovk, near Yakatorinos, yesterday thirteen political prisoners were liberated and the chief inspector at the prison was killed. While the Easter services were in progress at the prison a bold gang of revolutionists entered the building, shot the inspector and threw two bombs. The prisoners escaped in the confusion following, several of them were terrorists accused of many crimes.

DETECTIVE WORK.

Just as an intelligent detective sets himself to discover the identify of the perpetrator of a crime that seems mysterious, so the medical man goes to work to discover the origin of the troubles of his patients. He knows that in most cases some of the organs of the body are not performing their functions properly, and knowing that in a large percentage of cases the action of the bowels is at fault, he early inquiries whether his patient is constipated. If so, the physician knows that if a cure is to be effected, the constipation must be not only relieved, but permanently remedied and that in order to accomplish this certain muscles must be given new strength and elasticity. For this purpose successful medical men pin their faith to a preparation of 1-2 oz. Fluid Extract of Senna, 1-2 oz. Rochelle Salts, 1 oz. Aro-Sagrada, 30 grains Bicarbonate of Soda, 1-2 oz. water and 1½ ozs. Glycerine. Of this the patient is given a teaspoonful at bedtime and before each meal, the treatment being continued until there is free movement of the bowels. This simple prescription can be put up by any good druggist.

T. P. A.

The board of directors of Virginia Division of the Traveler's Protective Association held its bi-monthly session at Post A's headquarters in Richmond Saturday night. Among those present were Messrs. A. D. Brockett, and J. Y. Williams, of Alexandria.

The session was devoted to routine matters and preparations for the State convention, to be held in Alexandria next Friday and Saturday.

The board was much pleased with the decision rendered by the State Corporation Commission in the two-cent rate matter, in which the T. P. A. was the prime mover, and instructed the railroad committee, of which Mr. A. D. Brockett, is chairman, to press the fight in the Supreme Court in the event the railroads decide to appeal from the commission's decision.

The report of the membership committee showed the division had made the largest gain in its history and had won the $200 gold prize offered by the National Association. The net gain in Virginia was 686.

The sixteenth convention of the State division promises to be one of the most successful in the history of the association. The programme includes side trips around the city, three luncheons, a theatre party to Washington, trolley trips to Mount Vernon and Arlington. Mayor Paff will welcome the delegates and President C. E. Herbert will respond on behalf of the visitors.

Post F, of this city, has completed arrangements for entertaining the delegates to the annual convention which will open in this city next Friday morning. The convention will be in session until Saturday evening, when it will close with a banquet. It is expected that about 200 delegates will be present, representing every section of Virginia. The local post will be represented at the business sessions of the convention by sixteen delegates.

Death of Robt. W. Falls.

Mr. Robert W. Falls, who had resided at different times in Alexandria during the past half century, died suddenly at his home in Washington at 1 o'clock yesterday morning. The remains were brought to the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. J. J. Green, south Fairfax street, yesterday afternoon. His funeral will take place tomorrow evening at 5 o'clock. Mr. Falls was 74 years old. He leaves three children, Mr. Robert Falls, jr., Mrs. John H. Ballaugh and Mrs. J. J. Green. The deceased was in Alexandria on Saturday when he complained of indisposition. After he had returned to his home his condition became more grave and his death followed about one o'clock yesterday morning. His wife, it will be remembered, died a few weeks ago. Mr. Falls was a native of Lynchburg, and over half a century ago became agent of Adams Express Company in this city, a position he held until the outbreak of the civil war, when he removed to Lynchburg and during the four years conflict was manager in that city of the Southern Express Company. At the close of hostilities he returned to Alexandria and was again made agent of Adams Express Company, a position he held for several years. The later became manager of the Braddock House at a time when that hostelry was the main public house of Alexandria. He subsequently removed to Washington where he had since resided, and for the past twenty years had been a clerk in the Gas Light Company of that city. Mr. Falls was twice married. His first wife was a daughter of the late John Furlong, the second a daughter of the late J. T. Armstrong.

The Poll Tax.

When the office of City Treasurer Robinson closed Saturday night, the total number of voters who had registered was 1,643, eighty-two of whom were colored. Nearly 200 delinquents paid on Saturday. Those who have failed to register, excepting war veterans, will not be able to participate in the democratic primary, which will be held June 19 next, for the purpose of nominating a democratic candidate for Congress from this district, nor can they vote in the general election. The registration list is today the largest since the new constitution went into effect.

Treasurer Robinson kept his office open until nearly 11 o'clock for the accommodation of those who had failed to pay their taxes, and N. S. Greenaway, clerk of the Corporation Court, moved his records into the treasurer's office in order to facilitate matters.

During the Greenaway-Bendheim contest for the court clerkship there were 1,268 votes cast. In the Martin-Montague primary 1,010 votes were polled in the city.

In Alexandria county when the books were closed, over 700 voters had registered. Only 261 votes were polled in the county during the Martin-Montague contest.

Annual Debates.

The second annual debate between the Fairfax and Blackford literary societies of the Episcopal High School was held Saturday night in Liggett Hall, at the school. The subject was: "Is Woman Suffrage Desirable for the United States?" The contest was won by the Fairfax debaters, who took the negative side. The following were the debaters: Fairfax Society, Basil K. Conway and Douglass B. Williams; Blackford Society, Forrest A. Brown and J. Bruce McClelland, jr. Other features of the programme were as followers: Declamation, Ambler M. Blackford, of the Blackford society; reading, Edwin C. Douglass, Fairfax Society; declamation, Douglass B. Williams, Fairfax Society; reading, Ambler M. Blackford, Blackford Society. The judges were Dean Crawford, chairman, and Profs. Micou and Green, of the Episcopal Theological Seminary, and Angus M. Crawford and G. C. Shackleford, of the Episcopal High School. While the judges were considering the issue the audience was entertained by a reading by Prof. Willoughby Reade, who acted as joint chairman.

The Rosslyn Tragedy.

Dr. William P. Phelps, who gave his address as 152 W street northwest, Washington, and who was taken in custody Thursday evening last following the murder of Louis Ledden by George Garrett, colored, in an alleged "dope" joint at Rosslyn, Alexandria county, was arraigned at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon before Justices Thompson and Donaldson at the Alexandria county court house to answer a charge of selling drugs without a license. The defendant admitted having disposed of cocaine to the proprietors of the place, and a fine of $50 and costs was imposed.

It is expected that Dr. Phelps will be called upon to testify in the murder trial, and prior to his trial on a charge of selling drugs without a license Commonwealth's Attorney Mackey secured a statement from him. Like all the other statemen's made by those held, it threw but little light upon the tragedy.

Dr. Phelps said he and a Washington man named Brown had rented the place where the murder occurred with the expectation of securing a license to sell whisky there, as he thought the judge would grant him a license. Concerning the use of cocaine, he stated that the effect of the drug was but little different from that produced by whisky, and its use could be stopped without producing any bad effect. He, however, stated that morphine is far worse than cocaine. Dr. Phelps also said that he purchased cocaine in large quantities and disposed of it to people who sold it to the users of the "dope." In the opinion of Mr. Mackey the "joint" has been the distributing point for cocaine for the District. Commonwealth's Attorney Mackey has decided to hold Margaret Landon as a witness in the murder case, and she will also be charged with vagrancy.

Owing to the fact that there are a number of witnesses whom the commonwealth's attorney desires to examine it is expected Garrett will not be given a preliminary hearing until the middle of next week. It is expected that his case will be at once referred to the grand jury.

Funerals.

The funeral of Andrew Schwarzmann, sr., whose death occurred last Wednesday night took place from the residence, on north Columbus street, at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and was attended by a large number of friends and acquaintances including members of the Alexandria branch of the Glass Bottle Blowers' Association, of which he was one of the oldest members. The funeral procession was headed by a brass band, which played dirges from the house to the cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. W. W. Van Arsdale, pastor of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, and at the grave Mr. Samuel W. Stokeley, a member of the glass blowers' association, delivered a tribute of respect to the memory of the deceased. The pallbearers were six sons of the deceased.

The funeral of the late Samuel P. Clinkscales, who died Friday, was held yesterday morning from the residence, 708 north Patrick street. The services were conducted by Rev. Charles D. Bulla, of the M. E. Church South, and the interment was in St. Paul's Cemetery.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Margaret M. Lyles will take place from St. Mary's Church tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock. The services will be conducted by Rev. Father Kelly.

At a largely attended meeting of Alva Aeria, No. 871, Fraternal Order of Eagles, yesterday evening, simple, yet impressive services were held to pay tribute to the memory of their departed dead. Killed by His Victim.

In order to kill James Lewis, who had robbed him of $50 in a card game, Henry Manigault held up a Central Railroad passenger train as it was leaving the depot at Savannah yesterday and fired three bullets into Lewis. Lewis and Manigault engaged in a game of cards in a room over the union depot. Lewis soon won $50, all the money that Manigault had. Manigault accused Lewis of cheating and started to strike him, but the latter ran. Manigault subsequently got a rifle and hunted for Lewis. He learned that Lewis had taken refuge on a train, and took a position on the side of the railroad track about 300 yards from the station. As the train came along Manigault covered the engineer and ordered him to stop. The engineer paid no attention to the order, and Manigault shot the engineer. The train was then stopped. Meanwhile Lewis leaped from the train and ran. Manigault fired three bullets at the fleeing man, each of which took effect. Manigault then rushed to the dying man and rifled his pockets, securing the $50 which he had lost in the card game. He then held the crowd at bay with his rifle and made his escape.

Relief from Rheumatic Pains.

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Rolland Curry, a patrolman, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Prin Palm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months." For sale by W. F. Creighton and Gibson and Timberman.

Motormen and Conductors Strike.

Street car motormen and conductors of San Francisco struck yesterday, tying up the street car system of that city. In place of cars all sorts of vehicles, from automobiles to express wagons, were used by the public.

The 1,500 motormen and conductors of the United Railways Investment Company early yesterday voted to declare a strike after having failed to obtain an eight-hour day and a flat wage of $3.

The strikers have been reinforced by the stationary firemen, who demand recognition of their union and an increase of wages from $2.75 to $3.25 a day. It is probable that other allied unions will come to the support of the car men. There was no disorder yesterday, as no attempts were made to take cars from the barns. President Patrick Calhoun says that the United Railways will operate its lines independently of the carmen's union, and, if resisted, will demand from the city and State authorities the full protection guaranteed by the law.

A Hard Debt to Pay.

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equaled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Women's Pains

"I was a total wreck," writes Mrs. Beulah Rowley, of Champoeg, Oregon, "from pains I had suffered, for 4 years, every month. Sometimes I would be unconscious for 12 hours at a stretch. I did not know that anything could stop the pain entirely, but Wine of Cardui did. I advise all women suffering with painful periods to use Cardui and be relieved."

It does this by regulating the functions and toning up all the internal female organs to health. It is a pure, specific, reliable, female remedy, with a record of 70 years of success. It has benefited a million others. Why not you? Try it.
